Resounding the old masters
In listening rooms with listeners
Conveyed beyond themselves
Into the past—into the future.
The open mouth
Resounding common phrases;
The witticisms, criticisms,
Poeticisms—imagery
Of everyday life.
Well-spoken words,
Resounding with the clapping hands.
The footfalls in the halls, on bridge,
On stairs, and ramp, and swamp,
Resounding between closses.
The learning tensions lessened
When dancing feet resound
The ancient festivity in blindfold proximity
To the place where Tuscaroras donced
Their rhythmic tribal dances.
The listeners intent
Upon the speakers' symbols,
Before the bell resounds
The onxious hour of noon.

300 97

The tension of the cheers
 Above the smiles of victory;
 The blurred receding ground
 A runner whispers to in passing;
 The resilience of a ball
 That beats exciting rhythms;
 The longing and the laughter
 That jumps in throbbing patterns.

Reverberation stirred along through
 Concertos—syncopation.
 A broodened keyboard of success,
 A note, o chord forever.
 We move, we lough, we still, we sigh in
 Harmonious congregotion;
 And everywhere, in everything,
 We blend our thoughts together.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and their corresponding addresses. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are written in a more formal, printed script. The list is organized into two columns, with names on the left and addresses on the right.

[illegible]

The long-awoited moment comes—
The holls resound the seasons' sounds;
And soon the echoes stop.

Joy!

Joy!

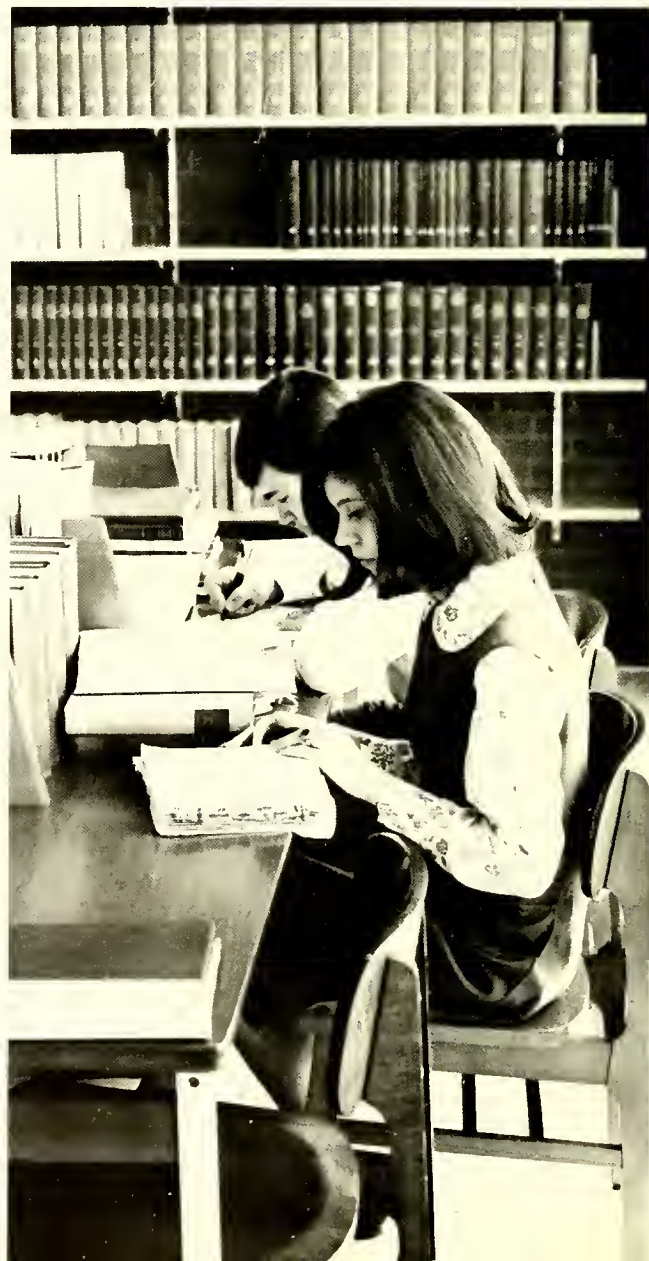

Joy!

Sounds of soap operas
 Sweetening, sickening the screen—
 Superman soaring through the sky—
 Series and serials
 Whiling away the hours.
 Locks clicking into place for
 Echoes of home and of friends
 Negating the chapel crush.
 Snack-bar snacks
 Passing for lunch.
 Cokes, coffee and cards
 Slap, slap and shuffle under
 Cloudy canopy of smoke.
 Cafeteria clatter, supper meal,
 Scrape of silver and chair,
 Sighs of relief, of satisfaction.

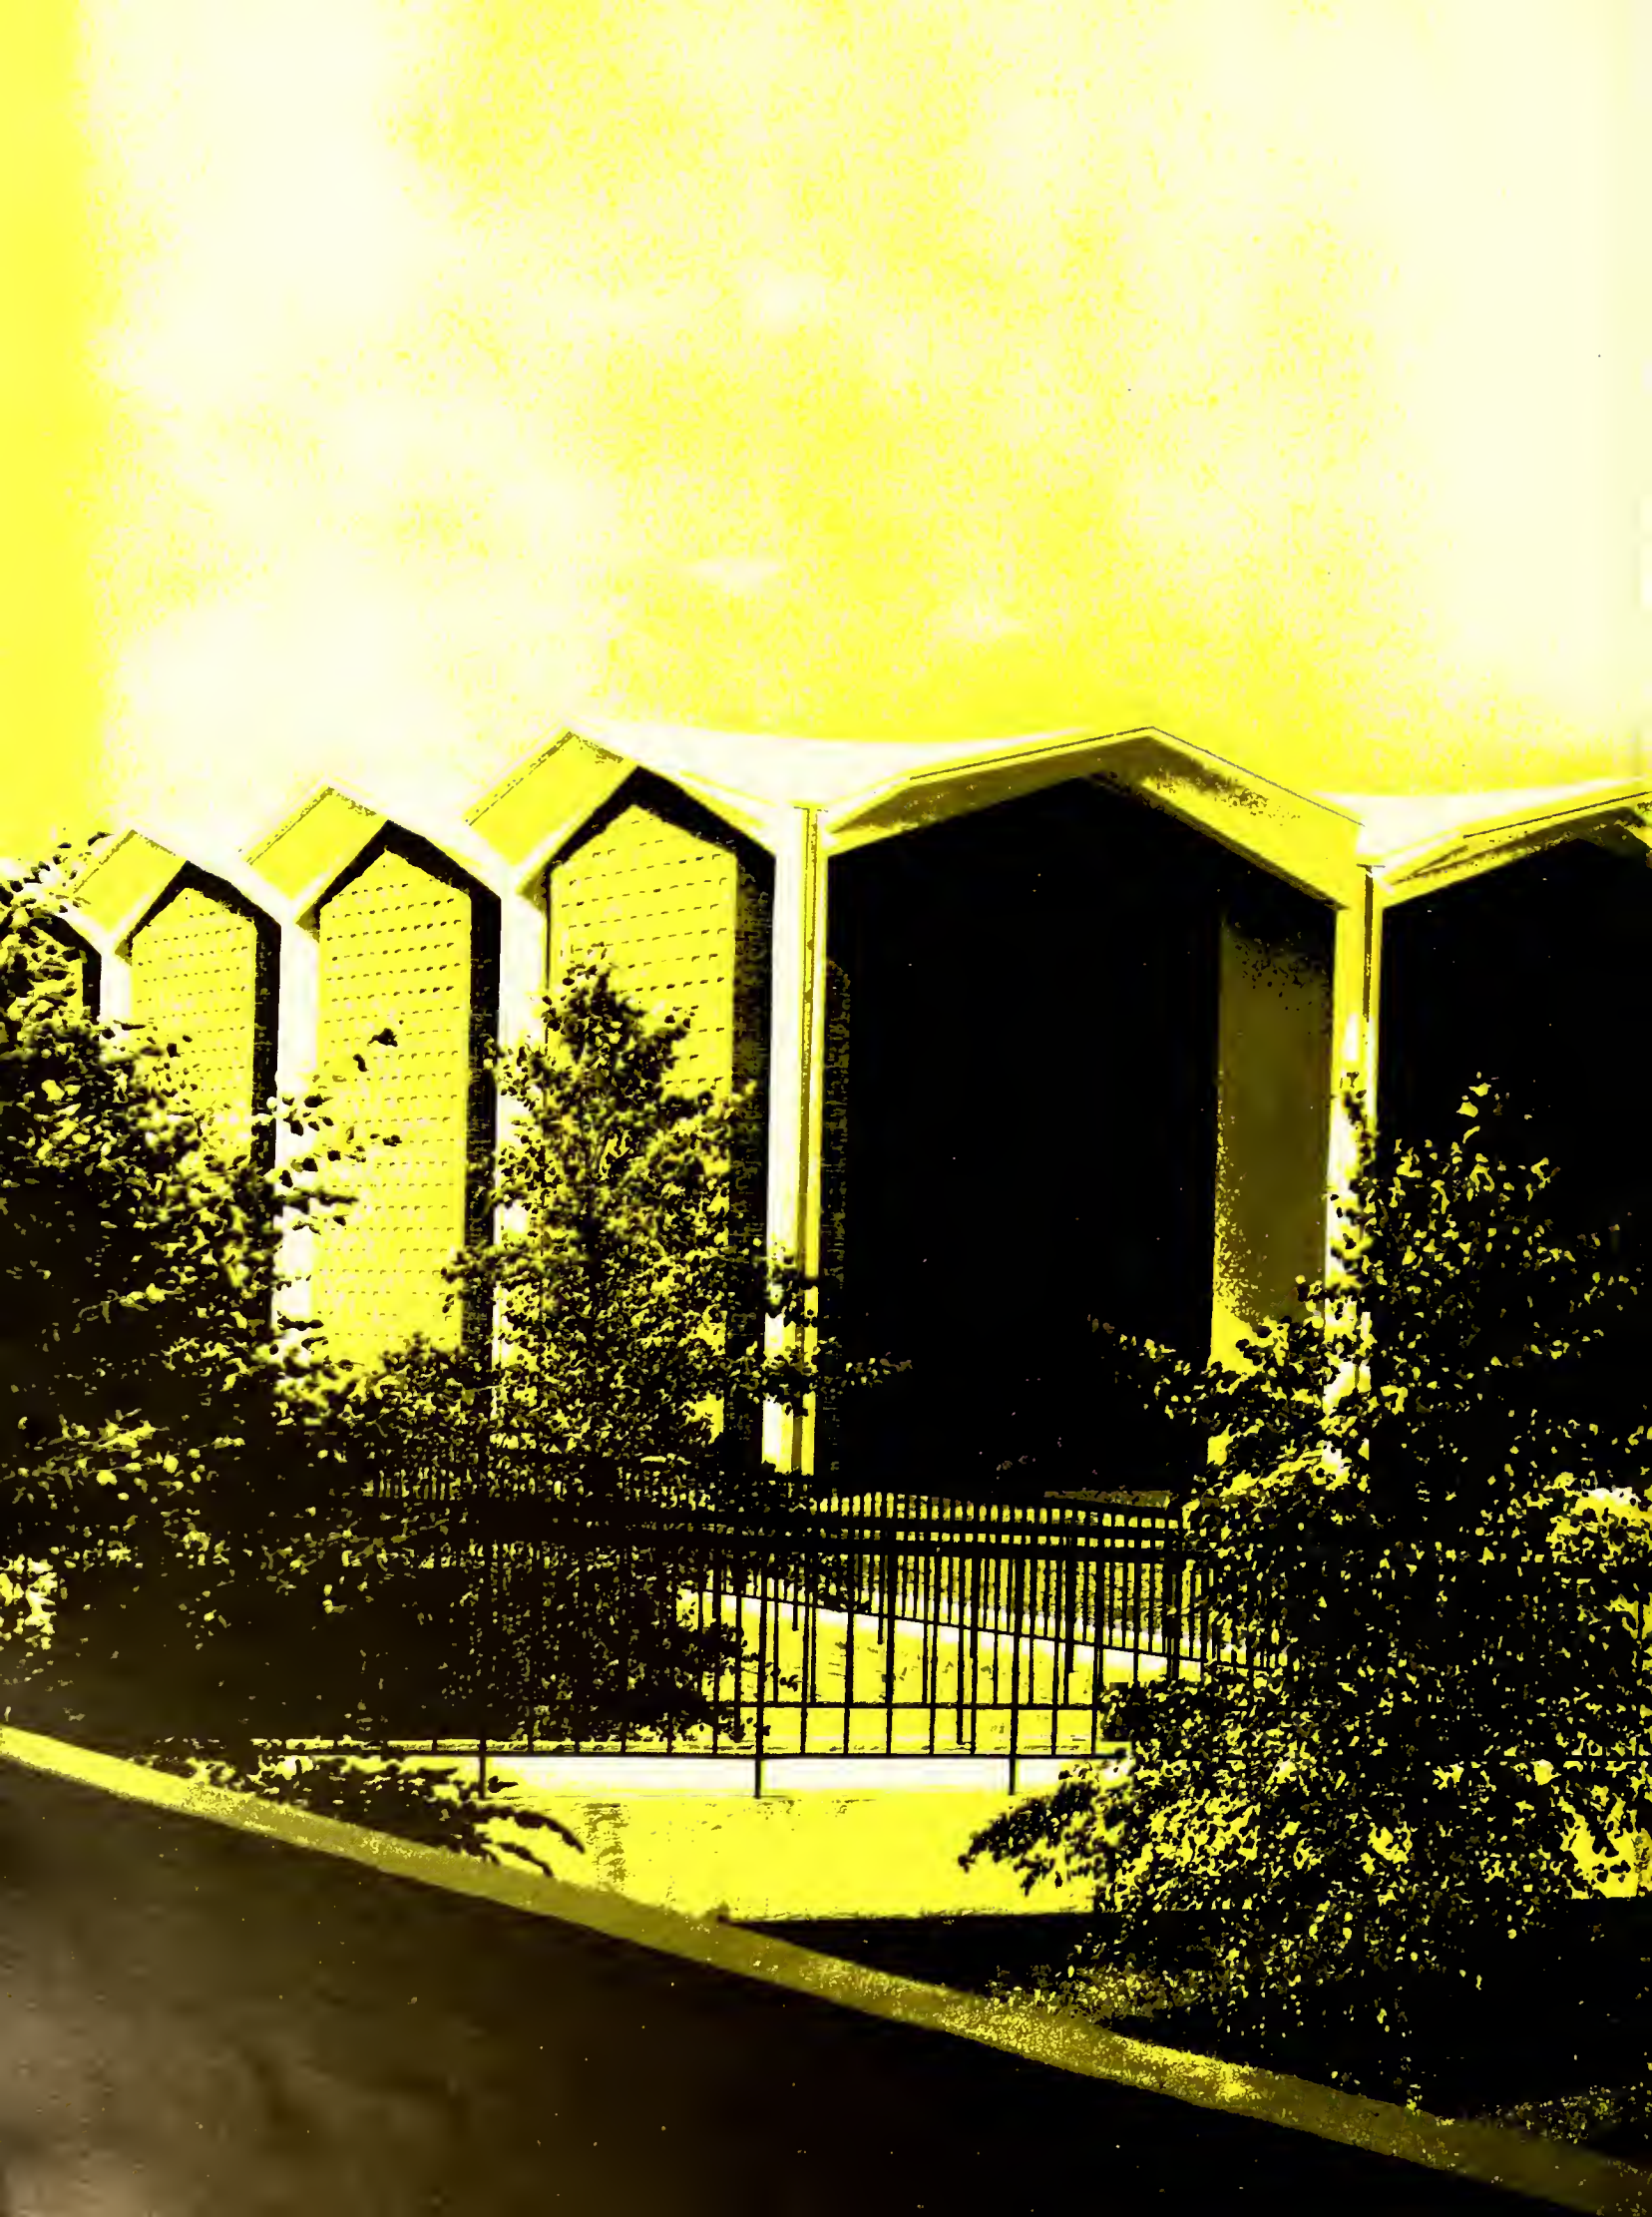

The give and take of peers,
 Soft shifting mental gears
 In sharing of ideas.
 The Great achieve new life
 Resounding through
 The sounding-board of youth.
 The stillness sounds
 Its way into the consciousness,
 Reshaping the lives,
 Recutting the paths,
 Preparing the minds
 To receive new sounds.
 The sound waves stimulate
 And motivate for truth,
 Emancipating youth,
 Who kneels before the altar
 To listen reverently
 In thoughtful search for grace
 To face the dissonance
 Abounding through this age,
 To find the resolution
 That will still chaotic times
 And keep reverberating
 The eternally valid symbols—

To resound the glorious sound.

ACADEMICS

Retrospective ...

Prospective ...

On June 22, 1957, Dr. Lucius Stacy Weaver was elected the first PRESIDENT of Methodist College. Since that time Dr. Weaver has been an example to students and faculty alike as he strives to maintain his pledge to uphold and promote "academic excellence and the Christian concept of life."

Dr. Weaver's dream of establishing a college has become a reality. Many of the hardships and details of building a strong foundation were worked out through the combined efforts of the Board of Trustees and President Weaver. The results testify to the ability, experience and understanding he brought to these tasks. His service is significant in interpreting to the church and to the community the aims, ideals and progress of the college.

As President, Dr. Weaver often appears before the students. His friendly words as he passes, or his more formal addresses in assemblies are well received and respected.

Terry Sanford, Chairman

W. Robert Johnson, Vice-Chairman

J.W. Hensdole, Secretary

Overseeing, planning and encouraging the development of Methodist College is the work of the BOARD OF TRUSTEES. With this group lies the responsibility for decisions which define and implement the college's educational goals and which determine its contribution to the community.

One of the most vital components of our college community is the ADMINISTRATION. It encompasses the entire business functions of the college as well as admissions and public relations and has greatly aided in making our college an efficient and growing institution.

Mr. O.E. Dawd
Dean of Students

Mr. Charles K. McAdams
Public Relations Director

Mr. S.R. Edwards
Director of Admissions and Registrar

A guide for the academic and social activities of the students can be found in our DEANS. By their interest and efforts, they provide the helping hand so often needed. This is exemplified in the discipline which they enforce and in the standards set by their own examples.

Mr. William P. Pape
Director of Development

Mrs. Gretta C. Duncum
Associate Dean of Women

Dr. Richard O. Hartman
Chaplain

Mr. William P. Lowdermilk
Assistant Public Relations Director

Mr. Paul D. West
Accountant

The ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS provide the extra time and initiative needed for a growing institution. Their aid to the Administration enables more time to be given to each problem, thus providing educated and well-determined solutions. Each in his own capacity helps to provide the oil needed for the administrative machinery. Their friendly and co-operative relations with students, faculty, other members of the administration, and with the community at large promote the well-being of Methodist College.

Mrs. Jackie Hairr, Mrs. Robert Turner.

Mrs. Hazel Horton

Mrs. Jack Thamos

Mr. Robert L. Mobson
Librarian

The LIBRARY shores the center of the campus with the Yarborough Bell Tower and has experienced almost phenomenal growth. It is also the center of intellectual stimulation. Newly occupied in November of 1964, it has increased its book acquisition past the 25,000 volume mark and is swiftly approaching the figure of 30,000 volumes. Expansion has been in every direction: increase in circulation books, reference books, periodicals, records, and a newly-acquired microfilm reader. A reserve book area, new book room, curriculum laboratory and periodical area have been set up for student interest and convenience. The conference room in the basement is used for seminar-type classes, faculty conferences, small meetings, and student government meetings. The main floor of the library serves as an area for student-faculty art exhibits, including such attractions as pink elephants, black and orange mobiles, and interesting cultural displays. Through the interests and efforts of our present library staff, growth and expansion of the library's facilities will continue.

These are the people who guard and maintain our property, health, and social life. In their own individual way, each contributes to the welfare of the student body.

Mr. Evans, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Musselwhite
Security Guards and Maintenance

Mrs. Mary Jean Rich
College Nurse

Mrs. Moyo and Mrs. Brown
Student Union Hostesses

Mrs. Miriam L. Usrey
Instructor in English and Speech

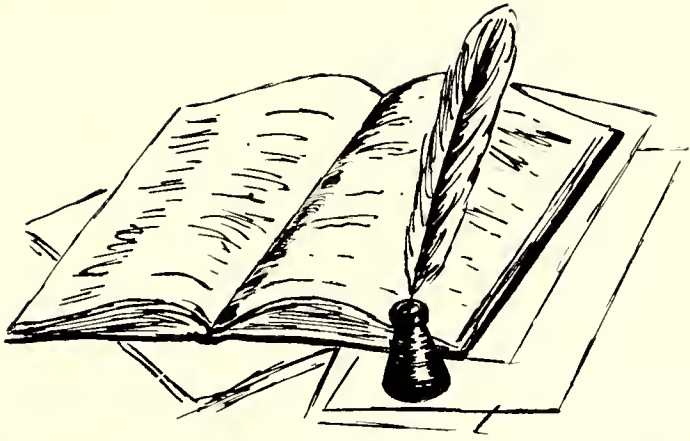

Dr. Francis J. Merchant
Professor of English

Mrs. Joy A. Jackson
Instructor in English

Mr. Charles E. Matthews
Instructor in English

The ENGLISH area seeks to give the student a solid foundation in grammar and composition and to promote cultural interest and enrichment through a thorough study of American and English literature. Drama and speech courses aid the student in developing clarity and variety of expression. Since an English major has already been firmly established, expanded course offerings will be in drama and speech. Outgrowths of the English area are the active Green and Gold Masque-Keys Drama Club, the recently formed Pastiche Literary Club, and the Debate Club.

Mr. Addison R. Barker, Jr.
Assistant Professor of English

Mrs. Jonet M. Cavano
Instructor in English

Mrs. Edith C. Boushy
Assistant Professor of English

Dr. Samuel J. Womack
Associate Professor of Religion

The aim of the RELIGION and PHILOSOPHY area is to provide students the opportunity of developing a balanced philosophy of life through the study of the literature, ideas, and cultural backgrounds of the Old and New Testaments. They are also introduced to the critical methods of philosophy in order that they may acquire the attitudes and motivation necessary to take a philosophical approach to ethical, scientific, aesthetic, religious, political and social problems of our times. The religion and philosophy area offers a sufficient number and variety of courses to provide a balanced program for majors in religion. Finally, this area offers courses which are designed to strengthen and undergird the curricula of other areas of concentration.

Miss Sara Ann Wilkin
Instructor in Bible

Mr. Claire Albright
Instructor in Bible

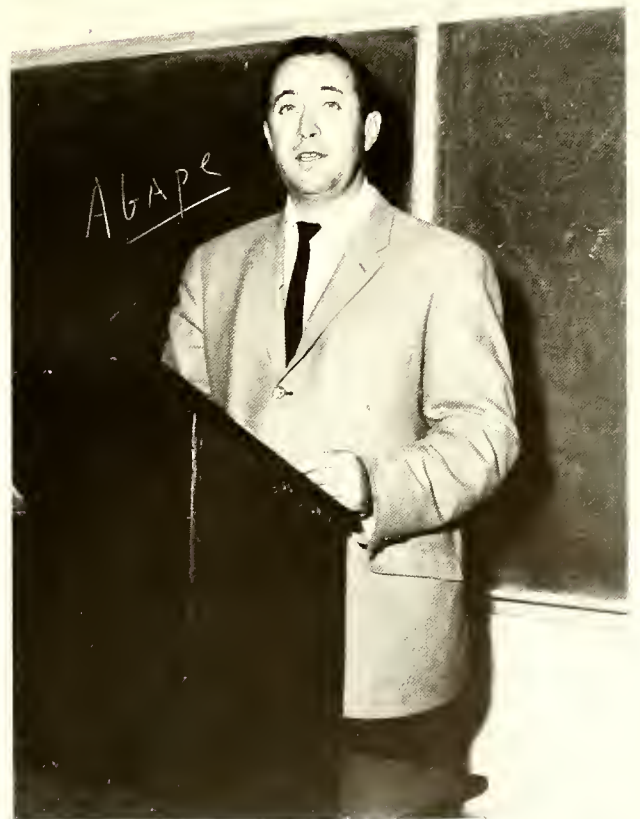

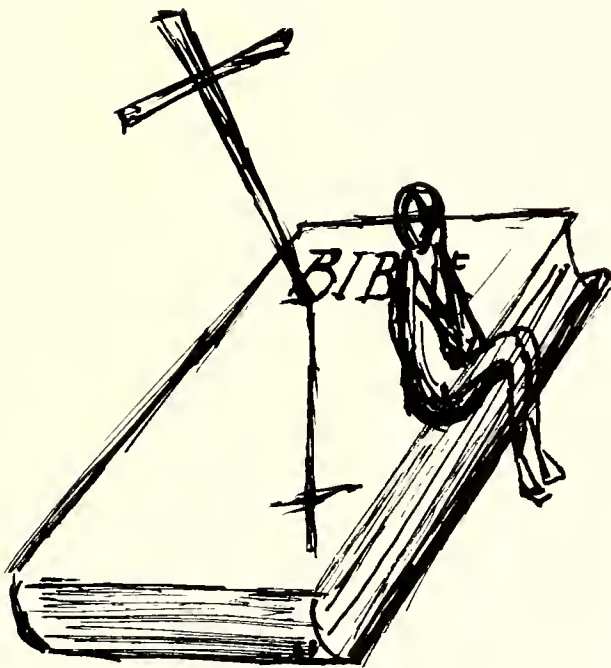

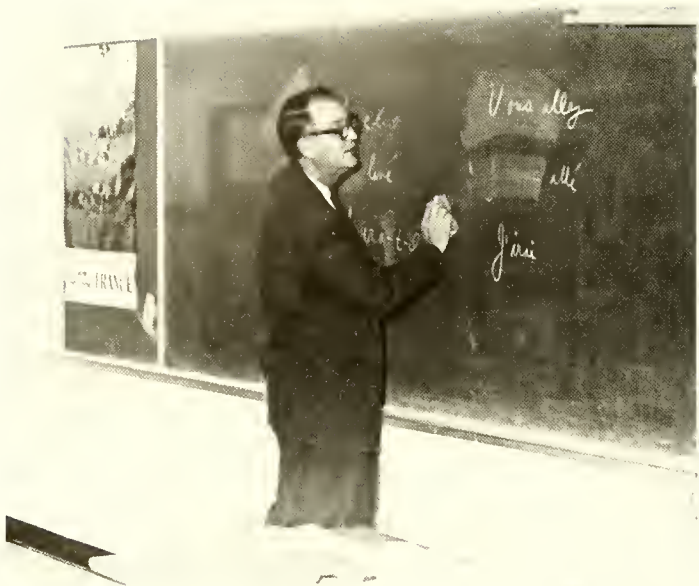

Dr. Richard O. Hartman
Associate Professor of Religion and Philosophy

Dr. Garland Knatt
Associate Professor of Religion

Mr. George P. Chandler
Instructor in Philosophy

Dr. Charles G. Rowe
Professor of Foreign Languages

Of all the areas, the LANGUAGE area has recently experienced the greatest expansion, growing from one faculty member to six. The language offerings now include a major and minor in French, a minor in Spanish, and liberal arts requirements in German. The purpose of incorporating language study in the liberal arts program is to promote an interest and appreciation of other languages, literatures and customs which will become a permanent part of the student's cultural background. As there have been only two language majors to graduate thus far, it is hoped that more students will be interested in a language major or minor and that the area can be expanded to keep pace with increased interest. An outgrowth of the language area has been the formation of an active Spanish Club.

Mrs. Joyce E. Porter
Instructor in French

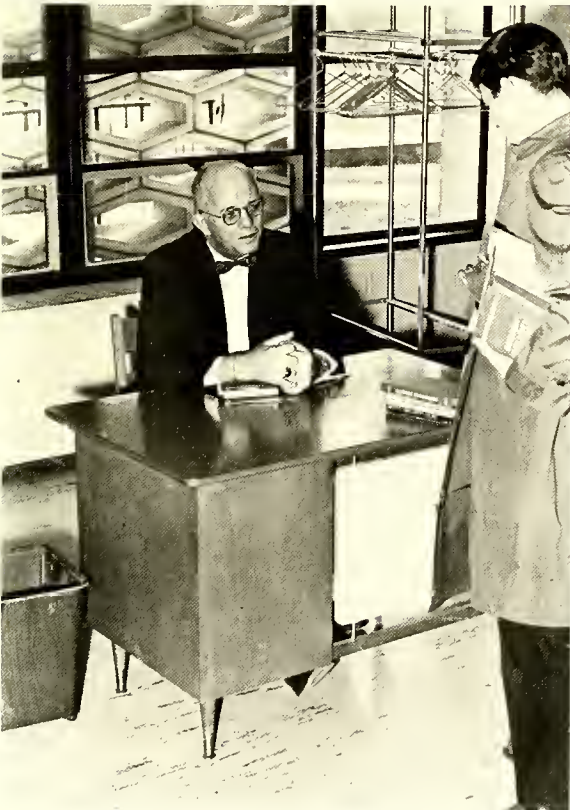

Mrs. Nancy C. Holmes
Instructor in French and Spanish

Dr. John O. Tobler
Instructor in German

Dr. Fred G. Piercy
Associate Professor of Spanish

Dr. Esperanza Escudero
Assistant Professor of Spanish

Dr. Willis C. Gates
Professor of Music

For the MUSIC major or minor, the department offers a balanced curriculum involving performance as well as theoretical and historical knowledge. The program of instruction adequately prepares students who wish to continue in graduate studies leading to the M.A. or the M.A.T. in Music. In addition to numerous student recitals, the department annually presents an Oratorio, performed jointly by the College Chorus and the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra, and a spring chamber music program. Future plans include the addition of a Fine Arts building and expanded offerings in instrumental and vocal music. All professors are very active in the music life of the community.

Mr. Alan M. Porter
Instructor in Voice

Mrs. Jean B. Ishee
Instructor in Piano and Organ

Methodist College's ART department came into existence with the addition of Mrs. Elizabeth V. Garthly to our faculty three years ago. During her years on campus she has enjoyed seeing both the college and her department expand and mature. She expresses hope that a major and a minor will be offered in the near future. The latest development within her niche on campus is an art club, The Fifth Dimension, whose purpose, as implied in its title, is to provide opportunity for the increase of breadth of understanding and appreciation of the arts as related to social and cultural trends of the twentieth century. Campus interest in art is stimulated through the presentation of art shows featuring work done by students in various classes.

Mrs. Elizabeth V. Garthly
Assistant Professor of Art

Dr. Vearl G. McBride
Professor of Education and Psychology

Dr. Karl H. Berns
Professor of Education and Psychology

The chief objective of the EDUCATION and PSYCHOLOGY area is to prepare students for teaching and to help them develop as individuals. Hopes for the future include the creation of a psychology minor related to more fields of inquiry. Professors in this area take double duty in guidance work, in supervising of teaching internships, in speaking engagements, and in speed-reading instruction. Prospective teachers have the opportunity for membership in the Student, State, and National Education Association. Seven graduates have gone on to graduate school in the areas of school administration, curriculum development, and in special education.

Mr. Ingram C. Parmley
Instructor in Psychology

Mrs. Gretta C. Duncum
Instructor in Psychology

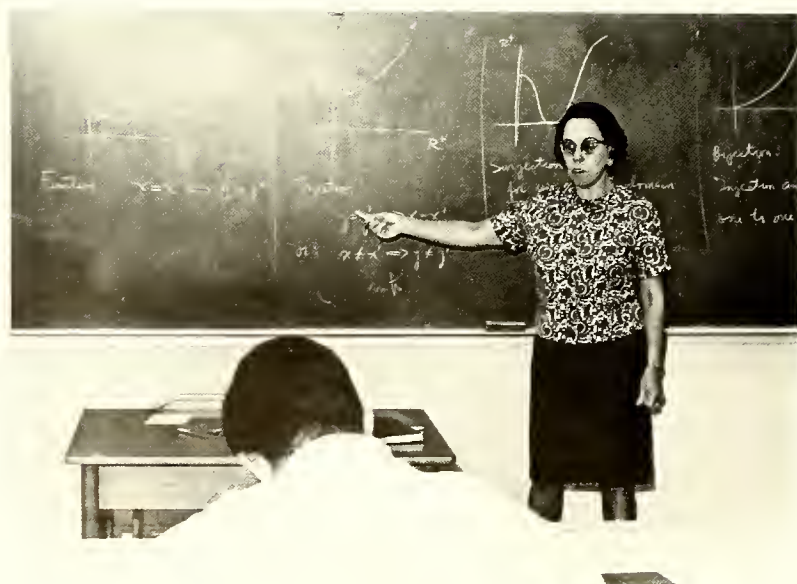

Mr. Robert B. Ambrose
Instructor in Mathematics

The MATHEMATICS department of the science area of Methodist College is constantly striving to develop and communicate modern trends in math. Recent additions to the math program are modern geometry, modern algebra, modern techniques in elementary and secondary math, and probability. The aim of the department is to equip students to enter graduate school, to train elementary majors, and to offer supplementary aid to the sciences.

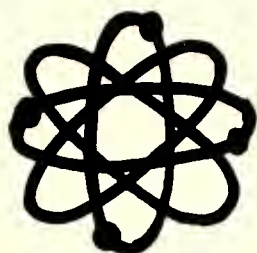

Miss Margaret H. Pool
Assistant Professor of Mathematics

Dr. Ofelia M. Bolaez
Associate Professor of Mathematics

The CHEMISTRY and PHYSICS departments are affiliated with the Science Club and participate in field trips and in the sponsoring and supporting of guest lecturers. The Chemistry department of the science area offers a major of four years work. A projection into the future is additional staff members as enrollment demands them. Past chemistry majors have continued their interest through graduate study, Air Force Officers Candidate School, and industry. Physics courses are offered as related work in chemistry, biology and mathematics. The area looks forward to the establishment of a physics minor.

Dr. Charles N. Ott
Professor of Chemistry

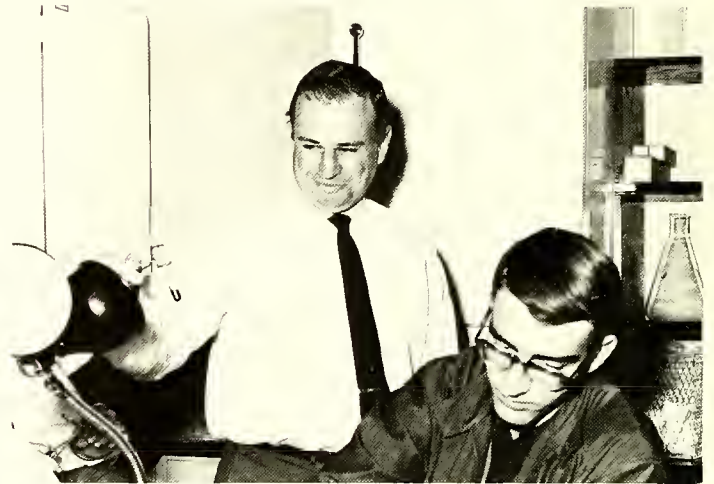

Mr. John A. McAlexander
Instructor in Physics and Mathematics

Dr. James R. Heffern
Associate Professor of Biology

The BIOLOGY department through varied approaches and meaningful experiences seeks to challenge the potential of the individual student. The present program includes basic required courses and advanced work for a major in Biology. In the future the department hopes to increase the course offerings for majors and to build up collections of organisms for study purposes. The biology department supports the Science Club and the Collegiate Academy of the North Carolina Academy of Sciences. The department also participates in field trips and promotes special guest lectures in science. Individual professors are presently engaged in the North Carolina Education Association, in research on the education program of North Carolina, and in building up collections and data on local flora and fauna.

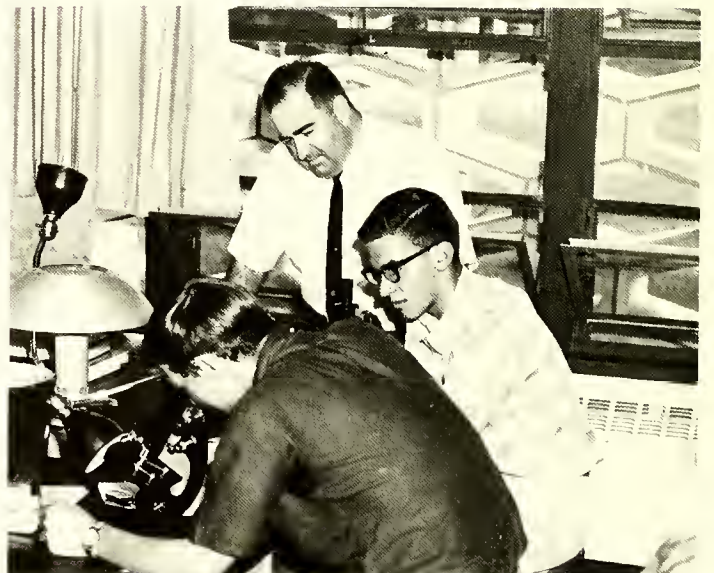

Mr. Philip J. Crutchfield
Assistant Professor of Biology

Mrs. Pauline M. Longest
Assistant Professor of Biology

Mr. Bobby L. Crisp
Assistant Professor of Biology

Dr. Gloria B. Merchant
Associate Professor of History

Mr. Bruce R. Pulliam
Assistant Professor of Social Studies

The HISTORY department of the social science area offers a major and a minor in history, which can serve as a basis for teaching, for civil service social work, or for continued studies at the graduate level in law or historical research. Besides offering basic liberal arts requirements, this department branches into United States and English history, ancient and medieval history, and Latin American, Asian, Russian, and modern European studies. The faculty members have contributed to the college atmosphere by their participation in community activities and by various scholarly writings.

The SOCIOLOGY department seeks to promote the intellectual growth of the student through a minor and a projected major in sociology. In the future is the formation of a Sociology Club and the preparation of potential social workers for graduate study. The department is small, but it is rapidly growing.

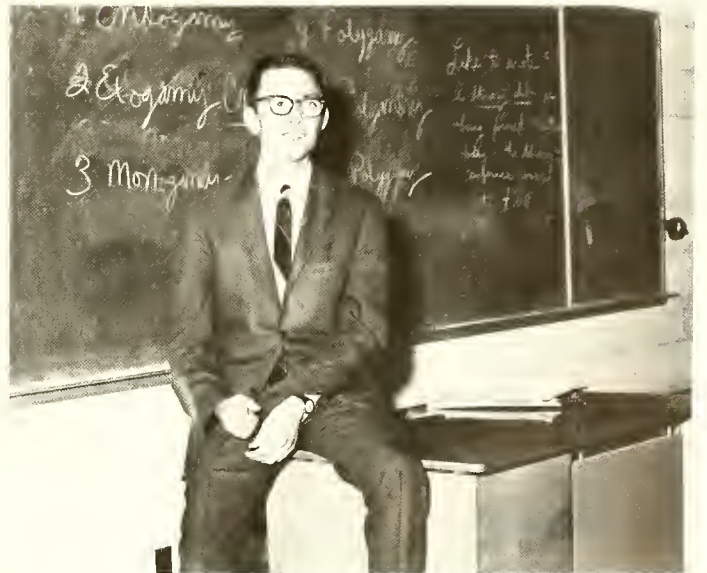

Mr. Ray J. Kinder
Instructor in History

Mr. R. Parker Wilson
Assistant Professor of History

Mr. Bill R. Cain
Instructor in Sociology

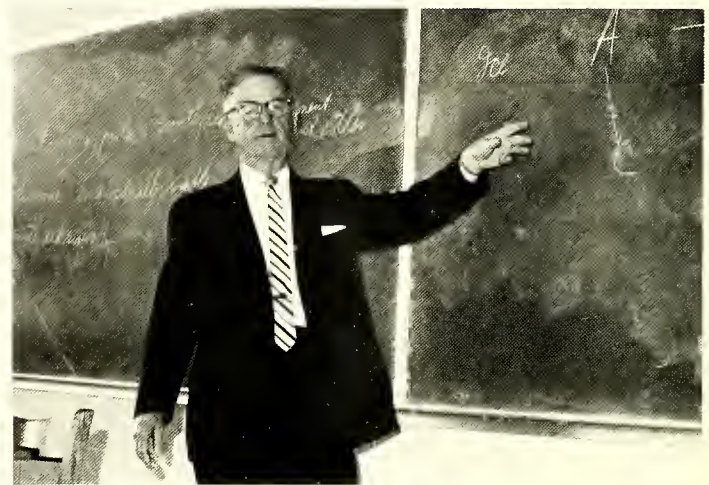

Dr. John O. Tobler
Associate Professor of Political Science

Mr. Richard A. Ehrhort
Instructor in Economics
and Business Administration

A major in BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION is offered with an ECONOMICS prerequisite and further economics studies included in the program. Graduates are prepared for the business world or for graduate level work. Included in the social science area are POLITICAL SCIENCE and GEOGRAPHY. Political science serves as related work with projected major and minor offerings which will prepare the student for graduate work in political science and law school. Geography has been transferred from related sciences to the social science area and is used as required preparation for elementary teaching.

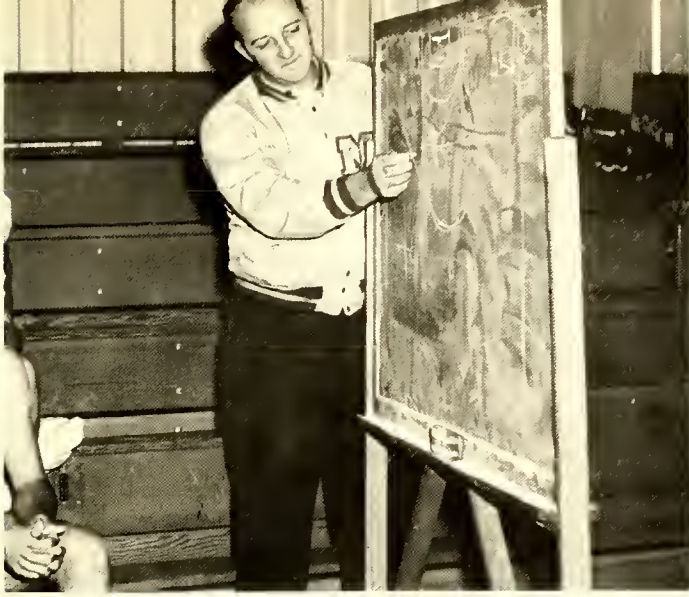

Dr. Christopher M. Ryan
Professor of Economics
and Business Administration

Mrs. Pauline M. Longest
Instructor in Geography

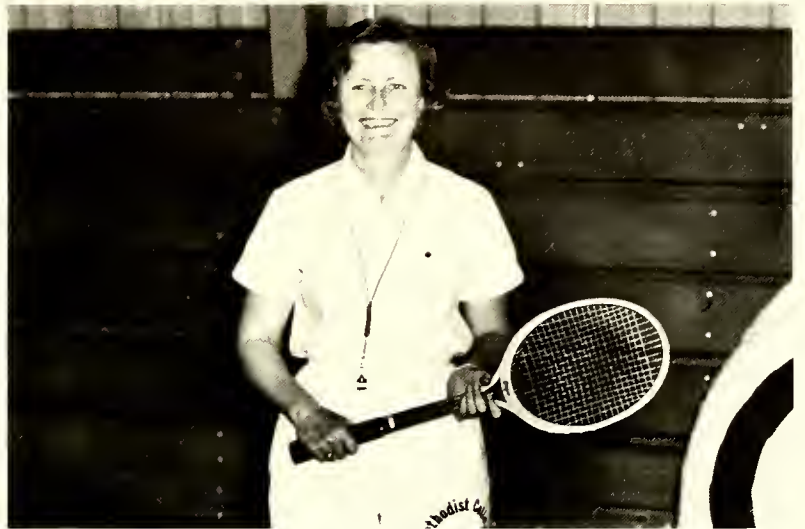

Mr. Orren E. Dowd
Assistant Professor of Social Studies

Mr. Ernest W. Schwarz
Instructor in Physical Education

The PHYSICAL EDUCATION area seeks to fulfill the liberal arts requirements for a two-year physical education program. Included in the program are required courses in physical education and health for the elementary teacher. The intercollegiate and intramural athletics are supported and promoted by instructors in this area. Faculty assistance and student participation are strictly voluntary because no athletic scholarships are offered. Outgrowths of interest are the Women's Athletic Association, the Monarch Club, and the newly organized Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Miss Frances Douglas
Assistant Professor of Physical Education

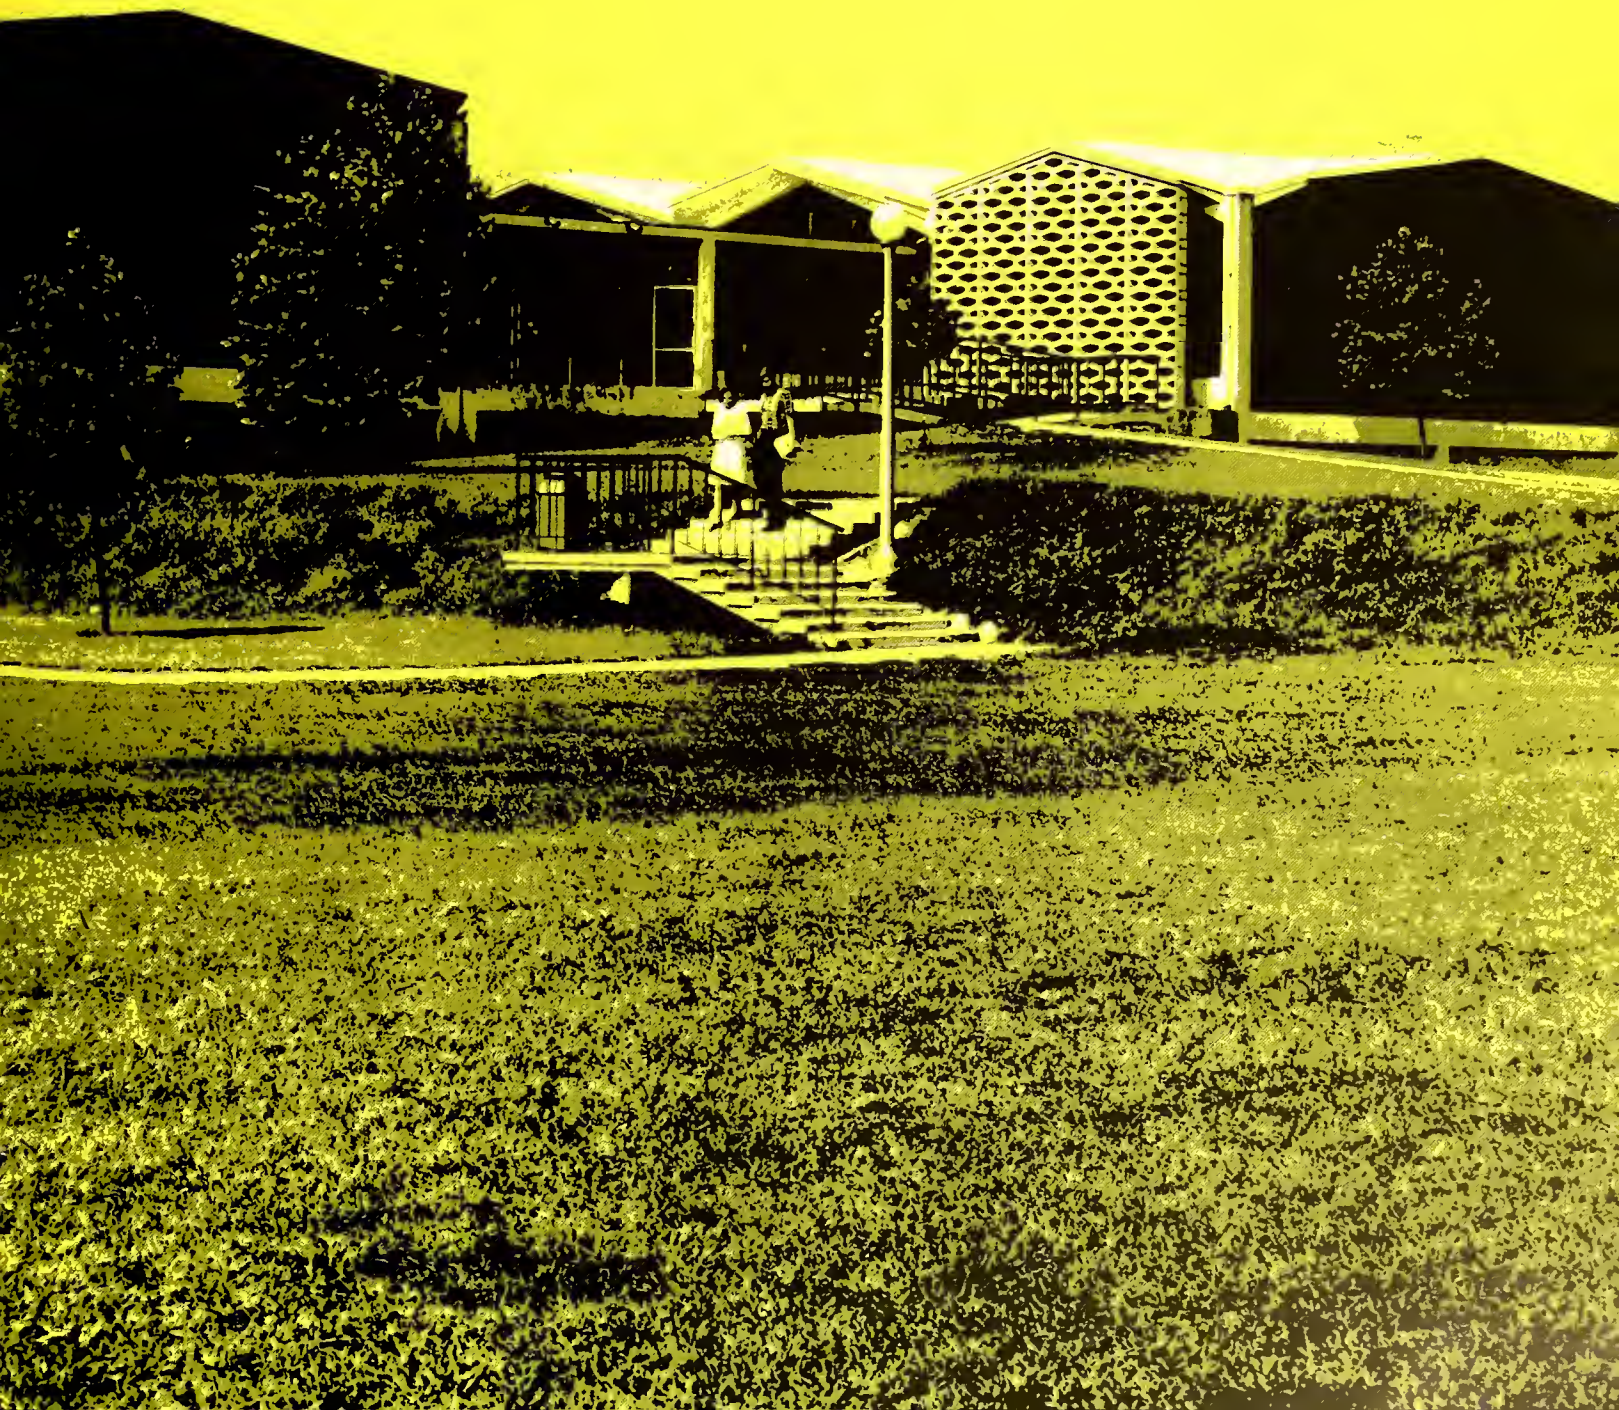

Mr. Gene T. Clayton
Instructor in Physical Education

Mr. Samuel M. Sykes
Instructor in Physical Education

Each candidate for membership in WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES is selected after careful study of his scholarship, his leadership and cooperation in educational and extracurricular activities, his general citizenship, and his promise of future usefulness by the college or university he attends. Final selections are made by the Who's Who Organization after recommendation from the faculties of member institutions.

Daris B. Britt

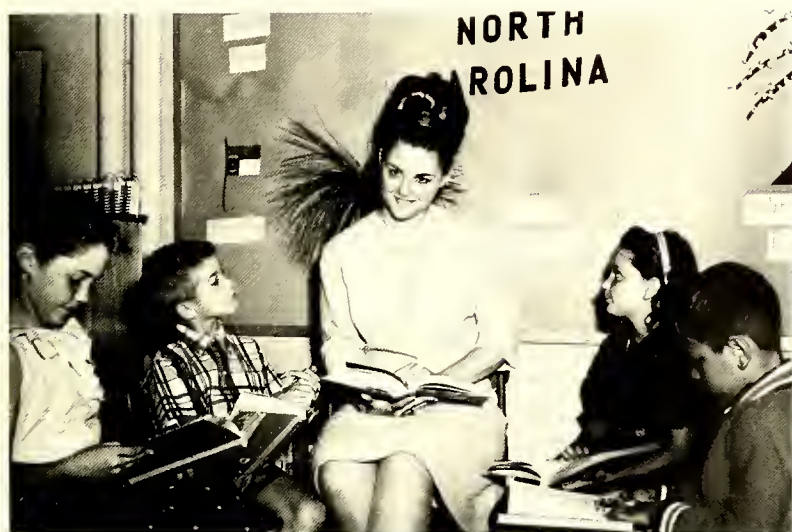

Anne Butler

Four goals of the Who's Who Organization are (1) to inspire greater effort in those who may not otherwise perform to the best of their ability, (2) to serve as a reminder that time may be used intelligently to bring best results from one's college experience, (3) to serve as a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement, and (4) to serve as a standard of measurement for students comparable to other recognized scholastic and service organizations.

Judicial Council, seated: Frank Lee, Tony Young, Ted Mazza, Deanne Little, George Peorce. Standing: Dean O.E. Dawd, Larry Bornes, Steve Hopkins, Chuck Bris-Bais.

The STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION of 1965-1966 has shown initiative as the voice of the students in every activity on campus. In this effort, more students have been active in the functions of the S.G.A. than ever before.

The executive branch of the government has been operating a very effective committee system. By engaging more student participation, it has contributed to realizing the ideal of a government operated by and for these students. The executive council has directed the course of the government and has been able to make its influence felt in many new areas of campus life.

The duties of the legislative branch, the Senate, have been greatly expanded. The Senate has also operated on a committee system which has led to further legislative action and has also given more students a voice in legislative responsibilities.

The Judicial Council emerged this year as the unquestionable court for student affairs. It has performed under tedious conditions and has accomplished an outstanding job.

Since the definite formation of the S.G.A. three years ago, its voice has grown stronger and surer. It has become the true government of the students.

The CLUB COORDINATING COUNCIL consists of the presidents of all campus clubs, dormitories, and classes along with the president and vice-president of the Student Government Association. Its purpose is to coordinate the activities of all these organizations, enabling them to be of mutual assistance to each other. This past year, the Council has sponsored the Homecoming Weekend with many of the individual clubs performing various tasks pertaining to the Homecoming events. The Council has also been used by the S.G.A. president as a sounding board for many of his ideas and a vehicle for discovering what the Association members, the Methodist College student body, have hoped to see their Student Government accomplish. It was through this mutual assistance that all campus organizations have been able to make more progress and to broaden their area of contact.

The YOUNG DEMOCRATS CLUB of Methodist College seeks to illuminate our democratic way of life by showing students the value of the two-party system. Activities during this, the third year of organization, have been rather limited. Political issues and discussions were overshadowed by the Viet Nam crisis.

The STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, Methodist College Chapter, exists to provide opportunities for prospective teachers to develop leadership skills and to become acquainted with the history, ethics, and programs of professional teacher organizations. Its members join in a movement with other educators to improve themselves as teachers, to raise professional standards and to better the schools of the state and nation. Monthly meetings, open to all prospective teachers, sponsor a speaker as the program.

The newly organized CAMPUS COED CLUB has been created to give women of Methodist College an opportunity for service within the college community. Its main function has been to work in conjunction with the Circle K as sponsors of a spring dance for the student body and to contribute to the community and campus life through services comparable to those motivated by the Circle K.

The Methodist College CIRCLE K, sponsored by the Cope Fear Valley Kiwanis Club, is a member of the largest collegiate organization for young men in the United States and Canada. The motto of this service organization is "We Build!" The club gives opportunity for participation, self-expression, and self-development. Some of the service activities have been the offering of a $100 scholarship, the distribution of monthly activity calendars, the recent formation on campus of a similar girls' service club, and the planting of several trees about the college grounds. Many more projects are now in the planning process for further service to the college and community.

The members of the very active GREEN AND GOLD MASQUE-KEYS DRAMA CLUB not only present non-profit drama productions but are also engaged in learning dramatic and stagecraft techniques through individual study and student programs at bimonthly meetings. Members not only build their own stages and scenery but also collect and make costumes, props, and make-up. Time and talent is donated to the school in the building of stages and flats and in the operation of lighting equipment. The club is hoping to qualify within the next year or so for membership in a National Drama Fraternity. Tryouts are open to all students.

Standing: Bill Hewlett, Vice-President; Connie Thomas, Secretary-Treasurer. Seated: Mrs. Usrey, Advisor; Diane Ridenbaugh, President.

The new PASTICHE was organized this year "for the purpose of developing talents in the art of creative writing and of fostering a spirit of fellowship among men and women interested in contributing to American literature through Methodist College." Progress toward these goals is made at weekly "workshop" meetings where members read their works to the club for constructive group criticism. Their tangible contribution to the campus is Tapestry, a publication of the best of the members' works. The first issue of Tapestry was published this spring.

The Methodist College DEBATE CLUB is one of the new organizations on campus this year. Members share common interests in gaining knowledge through the exchange of ideas and through experience in formal speaking. This year's efforts have been directed toward membership in an inter-collegiate debating league. Hopefully, next year will produce more opportunities for debating experience on the formal level.

The MUSIC CLUB of Methodist College supports visiting artists by receptions and by serving as ushers at the various musical events. As an active chapter of the Music Educators National Conference, the club is entitled to membership and publications. Students, most of them music majors, and faculty members contribute extensively to the campus and the surrounding community cultural life.

The BAPTIST STUDENT UNION of Methodist College co-operates with other campus chapters in supporting the activities of the state council. Chief among these activities is the summer program, LISTEN: Love Impels Sacrifice Toward Every Need. At this stage in its short history, the Methodist College B.S.U. attends state conventions, supports state projects, and holds periodical meetings with programs designed to interest the Baptist students of Methodist College.

The NEWMAN CLUB is an organization for Catholic culture and fellowship that fosters the spiritual, intellectual and social interests of the Catholic students of Methodist College and seeks to weld them into a common union and to assist Methodist College and its students whenever possible. Membership is open to all Catholic students. Activities include participation in Religious Emphasis Week and responsibility for a chapel program or other campus religious programs.

The WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP is composed of Presbyterian students who meet for monthly study sessions one Friday morning each month. They also sponsor chapel programs and participate in the Sunday evening worship service when called upon by the Interfaith Council.

The CANTERBURY CLUB is an organization for the Episcopal students of Methodist College. At monthly meetings the club holds study discussions and plans service projects. Other activities include participation in Sunday evening devotionals and other religious programs as assigned by the Interfaith Council.

Bryan Millikin, President; Janet Wilson, Secretary.

PENTECOSTAL COLLEGIANS is a national, inter-collegiate organization for students of full gospel denominations. The organization is chartered by the National Lifeliners Department of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. The purpose of the Pentecostal Collegians is to provide full gospel students with opportunities for worship and social pursuits on the college campus.

The purpose of the INTERFAITH COUNCIL is to encourage the spiritual development of all members of the college community and to serve as a focus of unity for the different campus religious organizations, each of which selects two members as representatives to the Council. Responsibilities of the Interfaith Council mainly entail planning for Sunday evening programs and for the annual Religious Emphasis Week.

sMALL TALK is the student newspaper of Methodist College which serves as the voice of the entire college community. The paper is financed by student activity fees and is operated by a staff headed by the editor and assisted by a faculty advisor. The purpose of the paper is to publish semi-monthly the news, sports, editorial expressions of the campus and extensive literary contributions from both the students and the faculty. sMALL TALK is six years old and has progressed from a monthly publication of four pages to a bi-monthly publication of six pages. The paper is presently printed by the County Press of Benson, North Carolina.

The 1966 CARILLON Staff presents this yearbook as an attempt to capture and convey the life of Methodist College students, be it filled with high moments and low moments, with laughter and with tears. We have placed in visual form the memories of a very important and eventful year, and it is herein that we have tried to realistically represent the interests and endeavors of students, faculty, and administration.

The staff is indebted to and wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the following persons for the assistance which they have been contributed in compiling this book: Mrs. Miriam Usrey, Mr. Addison Barker, Miss Ann Wilkin, Mr. Charles McAdams, and Lorry Barnes.

The Fall sport which arouses more student participation and more school spirit is BASKETBALL. Our team had a season this year for which we can all be proud, and we look forward to many equally successful seasons in the future.

The MONARCH CLUB, which is comprised of primarily basketball players along with tennis, golf, and track, participants represents persons who have lettered in their respective sports.

CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY LIFE

The 1965 May Court
 Louise Cannady; Vicky Van Dangen; Mrs. Cannie Killian, 1964
 May Queen; President L.S. Weaver, crowning the reigning queen, Fairlyn Jackson; Deanne Little; Patricia Zahran.

The highlight of the Methodist College social calendar is the formal May Dance sponsored by the Junior class in honor of the Senior Class. The theme of the 1965 MAY DANCE was "Shawboat," complete with the Robert E. Lee Shawboat, cotton bales, a minstrel show, crystal chandeliers, magnolia blossoms, and tired feet.

Lovely Fairlyn Jackson, 1965 May Queen, is crowned
 by President L.S. Weaver.

Strains of "Old Man River," "Moke Believe," and "Why Do I Love You," played by the Men of Note of Durham, N.C., created the mood for a delightful evening.

Queen Fairlyn and her escort Phillip Levine took the center of the floor for a victory dance.

Quit tickling me!

Its been a hard day's night.

Other campus dances, cosual ond semi-formal, are sponsored by the Student Government Association, by closses, and by clubs to promote student social activity or for fund-roising purposes.

Dancing in the dark—at least the sax players can see, or can they?

Toke over, Dod, I forgot the words.

Two to the left ... two to the right ... Do the ... twist?

Oh, my sacroiliac!!!

Second semester began with Methadist Callege's first HOME-COMING WEEKEND, complete with the crowning of the Homecoming Queen during the half-time of the basketball game against Baptist College of Charleston, S.C. This was followed by a Homecoming banquet and dance.

For the first dance, the floor is occupied by the Homecoming Court.

Susan Council is crowned by Mr. Charles McAdams as the 1966 Valentine Queen.

The weekend after Homecoming festivities was again a time for gaiety and relaxation: following the traditional smorgasbord dinner, the annual VALENTINE DANCE was sponsored by the freshman class.

CUMBERLAND HALL, named in honor of the citizens of Cumberland County, is the oldest permanent men's residence hall on campus. This dormitory houses upperclassmen and some freshmen.

Mr. Bruce Pulliam, House Counselor.

One of the newest buildings on campus is SANFORD HALL, named in honor of the former Governor of North Carolina, Terry Sanford, chairman of the Board of Trustees. This is primarily a freshman dormitory for the men.

Mr. John A. McAlexander, House Counselor.

Uppercrossman girls and some freshmen are housed in GARBER HALL, which was opened in 1963. Gorber Hall was named in honor of the Bishop of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, Poul N. Gorber.

Mrs. Becky Welbarn, Housemother.

Completed during the summer of 1965, WEAVER HALL houses freshman women. This residence hall was named in honor of Methodist College's first president, Dr. L. Stacy Weaver.

Mrs. Pauline Scott, Housemother.

The first campus FASHION SHOW, sponsored by Gorber Hall, contributed to the dormitory treasury. The girls themselves built the stage and scenery and modeled the fall fashions. Outfits ranging from casual sportswear to formal evening attire were contributed by local merchants. The evening was a tremendous success in terms of student participation and financial gain.

Linda Bunce models a three-piece sports ensemble.

Petite Marsha Henry shows off bermuda shorts and textured blouse.

Lois Hollowell looks very chic in coot and dress featuring the simple lines.

The new look in matching coat, dress and hot as illustrated by Carolyn Thompson.

Intermission entertainment—Bill Church and Sue Davis give us a song.

Mr. R.G. Wolser of North Carolino State University speaks an "The Comic Muses of North Carolino."

The 1965-'66 CONCERT-LECTURE SERIES consisted of thirteen different lecturers and concert artists, who were spansared by the Arts Program of the Association of American Calleges. Through this program, students were offered the appartunity to extend their cultural boundaries and to meet same well-known, extremely interesting, and always very warm personalities.

Dr. José Morie Chaves, a distinguished international lowyer, diplomat, educotor and outhority on Cervontes, appears on the compus as o Donforth Visiting Lecturer.

Mrs. Ursulla Zallenkopf, noted German controlto, is heard in concert with her occapanist, Mr. Edward Bradberry.

Alirio Diaz is featured in performance as one of today's greatest exponents of the clossical gitor and as a learned authoriorion on the historical development of his instrument.

Nathan Twining, an Artist who has been described as "the fastest rising young pianist in America," is presented in concert.

Students converse with Mr. Twining at a reception following the concert.

Mr. Denes Zsigmanday, renowned Hungarian violinist, and his wife Anneliese Nissen perform in a violin and piano concert.

Dr. H. Warner Klaepfer speaks on recent and fascinating developments in the field of human genetics.

Over the past two years, the Green and Gold Masque-Keys Drama Club has undertaken two productions. "EVERYBODY LOVES OPAL" was produced in the spring of 1965. The fall production of 1965 was "BELL, BOOK AND CANDLE," Under the direction of Mrs. Mariam Usrey, these productions attained an almost professional quality.

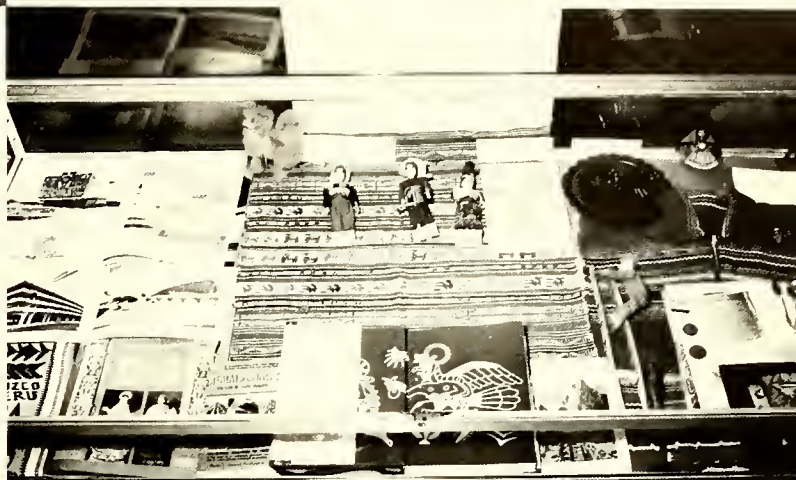

Mrs. Elizabeth Garthly exhibits the work of students in her classroom.

Student art shows are set up periodically in the center of the library.

Such informative and colorful displays as this, by Mr. Parker Wilson, contribute greatly to the library's appearance and atmosphere.

Methadist College Students are frequently given the opportunity to prove their abilities in ART EXHIBITS, TALENT SHOWS, and MUSIC RECITALS. This is not only valuable to the students in their cultural growth but it is also important to the college as an indication of an active and thriving spirit.

Students occasionally expose their talents at haatenannies or in various talent shows.

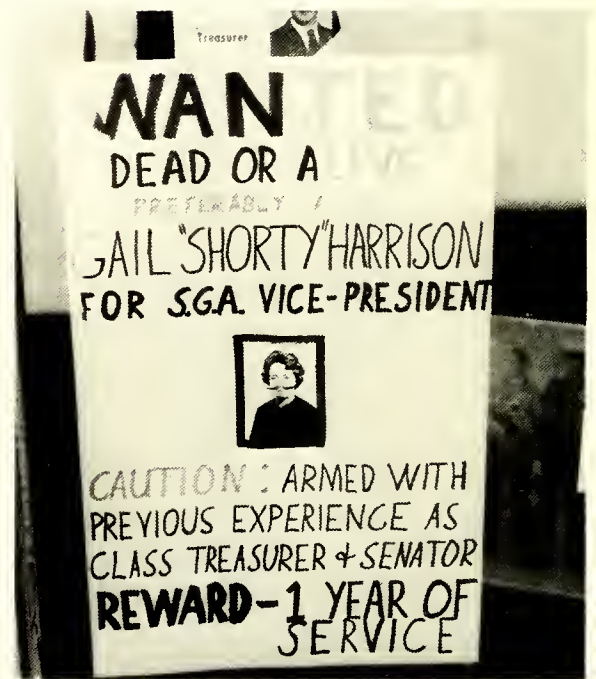

Applied music students perform in student recitals which are given several times throughout the year.

Each spring, ELECTIONS bring excitement to the Methodist College campus. Crazy posters are at every turn, but all is serious business.

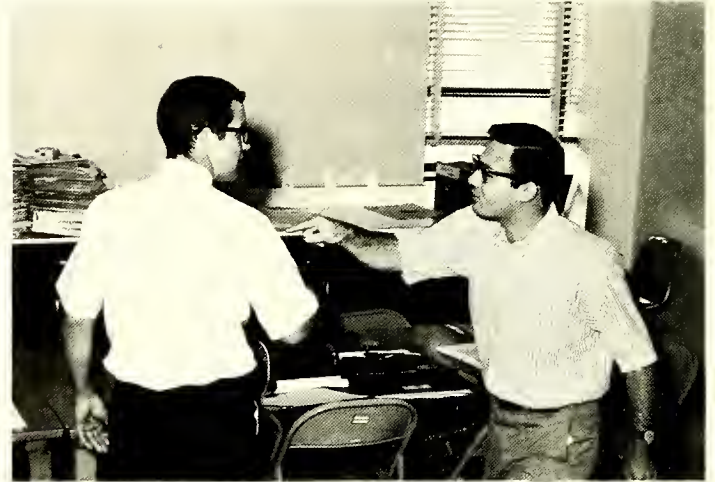

The moment which all seniors await is graduation. The highlight of the second COMMENCEMENT exercises was the dedication of the Yarborough Belltower and the Janes Carillon, a contribution from which our yearbook derives its name.

Since the conception of Methodist College, the interest and support of the city of FAYETTEVILLE is evident in many ways, through financial contributions and through attendance at college functions. The college in turn seeks to fulfill the higher education needs of the community and to broaden cultural horizons.

Eutaw and Tallywood SHOPPING CENTERS are extensions of the facilities of several downtown stores. These stores offer employment for some students and are patronized by many others.

The Student Government Association voiced support for American military policy and a close association with FORT BRAGG by a Viet Nam Day demonstration. General Stilwell and Colonel Nisbet were invited speakers.

Through the efforts of the community CHURCHES, students are enabled to participate in their common faiths. On Sunday mornings, buses are made available for dormitory students in order to transport them to and from the various churches.
